

Pressure

Reset

Everyone is staring
Down at me again
Something's lacking
    My friends
    Never let me in
    I feel the pressure
        Pushing me
    It's pushing me again
    I can't take much more
        Not any more,
        Not any more I feel
    That I've been pushed and
        Held again the wall
        No one, knew
        How I felt inside
    I feel, the walls are
        Falling down
        Inside my mind
    I need, some time
        To get away
    Why can't anyone
        Just listen
Leave me all alone
How come no one
    Understands me
Leave me all alone
