

She Has Funny Cars

Jefferson Airplane

Every day I try so hard to know your mind and find out what's inside you.
Time goes on, and I don't know just where you are, or how I'm going to find you.
You can do whatever you please,
Do you always,
The world is waiting to be seized,
Want to leave it all,
You can collect, all the neglect, or all the self-respect you need
You can be late, on loving me, always what you need
And I know, and I know, and I know
Your mind is guaranteed, it's all you'll ever need, so what do you want from me???

We live but once but good things can be found around in spite of all your sorrow.
If you see black, you can't look back, you can't look front you cannot face tomorrow.
Some have it nice, fat and round, flash-paradise. They're very wise, with their disguise, tryin' to revolutionize tomorrow
They may be wise, but they'll never revolutionize tomorrow??
And I know, and I know, and I know, your mind is guaranteed, it's all you'll ever need, so what do you want from me???

---

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>