Time Ran Out On You

Leo Sayer

You feel there's enough
You try because you do get lonely
And hearts feel too much
And right now you know you're only blue'Cos time ran out on you well that's tough
And so you try to steal the feeling back when you touch
A touch too much just starts you reeling now
You start to reason how, you know you do'Cos time ran out on you
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, oh, time
Ran out on youYou keep holding on
You know it's wrong but you can't let go
And here comes tonight
You say the situation's not your styleStill you linger for a while
That's what you do'Cos time ran out on you
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, oh, timeYou just don't feel right
And you pretend to be sincere
Nothing is clear
You're not sincere, oh noYou still don't feel right
And you have no intention to be left standing by
You say the situation's not your style
You linger for a while that's what you do'Cos time ran out on you, yeah
Time ran out on you
Time ran out on youRan out on you
Oh, oh, oh, time
Ran out on you
Hey, time
Ran out on youOh baby time
Ran out on you
Hey time
Ran out on youHey hey hey time
Ran out on you
Oh, oh, oh time
