Razor

Playme

Razor, making headlines and headstones
Breaking hearts and breaking bones
Your life's a performance
So let the cameras roleRazor, you know it's all too good to last
If it's not too much to ask
Slow down, slow down, slow down
Before you crash, oh, before you crashRazor, you're such a fatal attraction
Your friends are only for fashion
We may last for a while
But we'll go out of styleRazor, you know it's all too good to last
If it's not too much to ask
Slow down, slow down, slow down
Before youCrash, crash into my arms
Put down your guard disarm, disarm
You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issuesCrash, crash into my arms
Put down your guard disarm, disarm
You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issuesCrash, slow down before you
Crash slow down, slow down
Crash slow down, slow down, slow downRazor, razor, razorCrash, crash into my arms
Put down your guard disarm, disarm
You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issuesCrash, crash into my arms
Put down your guard, oh, disarm, disarm
You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issuesYou think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issues
