

Ruthless Love

Alexz Johnson

There is a time to be alone,
a time when you buy new shoes.
A time for grieving.
A time for believing.
A time to lose. There is a feeling that won't settle down.
It picks you right off of the ground. But like the spin of the world,
butterflies you ignore.
We never see the ocean's end.
It's the slam on the door,
like a tide hits the shore,
here we go again,
this ruthless love.
This ruthless love. There is a pain that can't be explained.
You've given yourself away.
When you'd take the bullet,
you're a fool and you know it.
You have nothing to gain. But like the spin of the world,
butterflies you ignore.
We never see the ocean's end.
It's the slam on the door,
like a tide hits the shore,
here we go again,
in this ruthless love. It's a cruel world.
It's a cruel world.
It's a cruel world.
You better watch out, son.
It's a cruel world.
It's a cruel world.
It's a cruel world.
You better watch out, son. It's the slam on the door,
like a tide hits the shore,
here we are again,
in this ruthless love.
This ruthless love! There is a time to be alone,
a time when you buy new shoes.
