Alone

Dan Black

Some are young, some are dumb
Some wanna die
They fill the streets, broken beats
Lonely eyes
But something seems to beat in me
I just don't seem the same
I was dreaming when I saw you
I was dreaming on the avenue
I was dreaming when the bomb blew
Because this endless desire won't leave me alone
It won't leave me alone
It will not leave me alone
Some are young, some are numb
Some wanna hide
I see beats and bins, mannequins
Lonely I, I, I
Because something seems to beat in me
I just don't seem the same

I was dreaming when I saw you
I was dreaming on the avenue
I was dreaming when the bomb blew
Because this endless desire won't leave me alone
It will not leave me alone
It will not leave me alone
It will not leave me alone
It will not leave me alone
Are you alone, alone?
Alone, alone, alone, alone
Alone, alone
I was dreaming when I saw you
I was dreaming on the avenue
I was dreaming when the bomb blew
Because this endless desire won't leave me alone
It will not leave me alone
It will not leave me alone, alone
It will not leave me alone, alone
