Jesse

Joan Armatrading

To save her from the beast
To save her from herself
And all the troubles
She imagines in the world, oh JesseYou can do magic
You can do magic
You can do magic
It's a pleasure
How you stole her heartThey sail off to the sun
He makes romance
The story always stops the same way
A happy end, oh Jesse, JesseYou can do magic
You can do magic
You can do magic
It's a pleasure
How you stole her heartSo strong and handsome
Like a raging river You tantalize
You sparkleYou can do magic
You can do magic
You can do magic
It's a pleasure
How you stole her heartThe only one she trusts
The only man
She runs her fingers down the index
And there she stops at hero, JesseYou can do magic
You can do magic
You can do magic
It's a pleasure
How you stole her heart
