You're Gonna Make It

Kj-52

Your gonna make it, yes, you're gonna make it
Don't you worry about a thing that's happened in your life
Your gonna make it, yes, you're gonna make it
Don't you worry about a thing it's gonna be alrightYou may feel like your just starting over
Mistakes from your past that just want to hold you
Down to the ground its all on your shoulder
You'll never make it now that's what they told youYou start to figure out who really cares for you
When no one's around no one is there for you
When I was down and out and life was getting colder
See, I found that's when God showed upYour trying to make it right they make it hard for you
But God will take a life even if it's broke up
Give you strength to fight whatever's coming toward you
And don't forget that I'm always praying for youIt's not fair all the things that just had to happen
Some days you wake up and feel like you've been abandoned
Life didn't shape up in the way that you planned it
The life you live is not the one that you imaginedI know they laugh and pick on you
I know you've had a lot of junk that you gone through
But I know who would never ever wrong you
Never quit on you and help you get on throughWhen you fell, He was the one who caught you
With every single tear, man, see He saw you
He was right there every time He called you
And I'll be praying for you gonna get on throughYou try to pray but feel too ashamed too
'Cause those around you they just wanna blame you
But don't listen now just to what they say dude
God loves you, He never hates youYou can count on the fact that He's faithful
Always exactly on time always came through
When your blind you feel you lost your way too
He'll guide you and help you to find your way throughHe knows you, He's the one that made you
In anything you go through now He can save you
And help you and plus give you strength too
You're gonna make it man you're gonna be okay, dude
