

Take A Little Chance

Peter Friestedt

Take a little chance
Won't you take a little chance on me
A little romance, girl Could be everything that you need You could be hiding behind a broken heart Maybe deciding to never fall again
You could be writing
excuses to yourself
When you know
you wanna start again Take a little chance Let your insides out and play
Have a little dance
Just forget about yesterday
You could be hiding
behind a broken heart
Maybe deciding
to never fall again
You could be writing
excuses to yourself
When you know
you wanna start again Let me know when the time is right Let me show you a better way to feel Then, maybe, you and I will be side by side It's time to go It's time to be for real Take some little chances Dance some little dances Lend your heart to me
Let me set you free
