

Hold On

Subseven

We're passing through this world so fast girl
Close your eyes and tap three times
No place like home will ever compare
Someday we shall say goodbye Shut your eyes just one more time girl
We won't fall for no more lies
Our problems here are temporary Ordinary, never worry Hold on, baby, hold on
This place is not our home
So just hold on, baby, hold on
It's not where we belong Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die We're travelling strangers with the fortune
Growing stronger everyday
We'll stay up late and raise our voices
Knowing things won't stay the same Ancient paths reveal our stories
Wrote in blood and left to read
All the letters of the past
We're the first to be the last Hold on, baby, hold on
This place is not our home
So just hold on, baby, hold on
It's not where we belong Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die
Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die Hold on, baby, hold on (Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die)
Hold on, baby, hold on
(Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die)
Hold on, baby, hold on
(Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die)
Hold on, baby, hold on (Head up high, hold the line, our fire inside must never die) Hold on, hold on, baby, hold on, hold on
