Rather Be Alone

INOJ

Thought I was the only one
Guess I was mistaken, you treated me like a queen
I never ever felt you'd betray me, she is your girl
And I am your girl, how could this be you were using me to cheat on herI'd rather be alone than being in love with you, I'd sleep out in the cold
Before lying in bed with you, I'd take the lonely road before taking any rides
With you, I'd rather be alone than being in love with youAll the times you spent the night with, your head laying beside me
And just when I was waking into the morning light
A note instead surprised me, she is your fool but i am no fool
And I was alone and all the things you said they weren't trueI'd rather be alone than being in love with you, I'd sleep out in the cold
Before lying in bed with you, I'd take the lonely road before taking any rides
With you, I'd rather be alone than being in love with you
(Ooh, all the things you said, they weren't true)I'd rather be alone than being in love with you, I'd sleep out in the cold
Before lying in bed with you, I'd take the lonely road before taking any rides
With you, I'd rather be alone than being in love with you
(Ooh, all the things you said, they weren't true)I'd rather be alone than being in love with you, I'd sleep out in the cold
Before lying in bed with you, I'd take the lonely road before taking any rides
With you, I'd rather be alone than being in love with you
(Ooh, all the things you said, they weren't true)I'd rather be alone than being in love with you, I'd sleep out in the cold
Before lying in bed with you, I'd take the lonely road before taking any rides
With you, I'd rather be alone than being in love with you
(Ooh, all the things you said, they weren't true)
