Lost In a Fantasy

A Dozen Furies

Suspendid
I'm weightless
Probing through my thoughts
I'm unconscious
I swallow the thought of one day
I will wake to realityHow can I find my own?
Lost in a fantasy
When will this life be whole
I've tried a million ways
To break freeI stay high
Sedated
Insecurities far away now
Wasted, I stand here and bleed
For a way to reinvent mePrepare for the leap
There will be no more suffering
Push within to find the will
To plunge to the end
