

Ana Mosh Anani

Amr Diab

I am not selfish
I let you live your life after me and stood here for years waiting for you don't come now and blame me that today i have someone else in my life (repeat)what would i do waiting all that time ? what love you are looking for ?
after hiding all that time there is no blame could affect me (music)you want truth !! cause your place is now occupied your eyes and heart are jealous and in sorrow forget me if you still think of me and you already have million way for it our days are gone i can say nothing more, i just wanna sing few words about how it hurt who told you that life ever stopped for those who are gone ?.....what would i do waiting all that time ?
what love you are looking for ?
(repeat)
end
