

A Circle Race

Violet Moss

lying on my bed I'm dry feel I'm trapped inside my mind tonight you can try at least don't be so sly but you can't take me down radio loudly is playing our song I don't want to turn it off, besides I'm on your side

please don't start a fight why you get so mad?

people say I'm crazy so i don't mind i feel I'm odd inside you can't lie
i see no shaft of light coming through the wall get out the cage you live don't you want to make it real it's time you can't hide shyness all your life into this ruby fall

jump to the other side go get stoned get drunk until you're high unless you slide evade one more time or buried in your mold tv plays your favorite show i feel I'm gonna break that door tonight i'm on your side i feel some tense around but you can take me down

FAR
THIS HOUSE IS A BURNING PLACE AT LAST EXCEED WHAT'S LEFT FROM PAST IT'A A CIRCLE RACE

where do we go from here don't you see the warning sometimes this feeling bursts into your life like a tidal wave.
