

Doubt (RS Home Instrumental Demo Aug. 1980)

The Cure

Stop my flight to fight and die
And take a stand to change my life
So savage with red desperation I clench my hands, you draw your claws
A hidden rage consumes my heart
As fueled by years of wasted time
I close my eyes and tense myself And screaming throw myself in fury
Over the edge and into your blood Tear at flesh and rip at skin
And smash at doubt I have to break you
Fury drives my vicious blows
I see you fall but still I strike you Again and again your body falls
The movement is sharp and clear and pure and gone
I stop and kneel beside you
Drained of everything but pain Screaming throw myself in fury
Over the edge and into your blood, into your blood Kiss you once and see you writhe
Hold you close and hear you cry
Kiss your eyes and finish your life
Kiss your eyes, finish your life Again and again your body falls
The movement is sharp and clear and pure and gone
I stop and kneel beside you
Knowing I'll murder you again tonight Knowing I'll murder you again
Knowing I'll murder you again
Knowing I'll murder you again
Knowing I'll murder you again tonight
