

Weekends!

Down with Webster

Cause something's going down I'm getting ready for the weekend
And I've been waiting so long, it seems like it comes and it's gone Cause babe you know I'm never gonna sleep until the weekend's dead. And I just wanna hang out on the beach all day,
Cause I got the kicks for the Monday,
But she got the blues for the Tuesday,
So I got the peace for the Sunday,
And this whole week feels like one day.
And this whole week feels like one day. Weekends on, go get your weekends on Go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on Cause I've been waiting so long, the weekend comes and it's gone
So go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on Go get your Cause baby know I'm never gonna sleep until the weekend, and I'll be there with my friends, we'll play it out to the end And Shorty's wildin' out while we be chillin in the deep-end, and now she's callin up her three friends Cause I got the place to go, the spot where the people all know, That I got the beats for the Friday, but she got the tears for the Saturday and I got the peace for the Sunday,
and this whole week feels like one day
and this whole week feels like one day Weekends on, go get your weekends on,
Go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on Cause I've been waiting so long, the weekend comes and it's gone,
So go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on,
Go get your Chyea! Everybody now, get your weekend on! We play shows on the move, better bet we never lose, Paid the dues, took the clues, now we gonna see it through Starlight and I'm coming home, I'm up before the crack of dawn,
And I won't stop until the whole world's dancing to my fuckin' song! Weekends on, go get your weekends on (go get your) Cause I've been waiting so long, the weekend comes and it's gone,
So go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on,
Go get your Cause I got the kicks for the Monday,
But she got the blues for the Tuesday,
So I got the peace for the Sunday, (go get your weekends on, go get your) Go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on,
Go get your
Go get your weekends on, go get your weekends on,
Go get your And this whole week feels like one day
And this whole week feels like one day Cause I got the kicks for the Monday,
But she got the blues for the Tuesday,

So I got the peace for the Sunday,
And this whole week feels like one day.
