

Feel the Love

*NSYNC

I feel the love
I feel it
I feel the love
That you give to me Can't get enough
Cause I need it
I feel the love
That you give to me I never knew
But now I know for sure
Cause you've got me
Writing poems, sitting by the phone
Waiting for you to call
Girl it's you I'm longing for So girl don't stop
What you're doing
Keep going
Don't you know that I You couldn't comprehend
Me being just a friend
So you
Took it upon yourself
To make me yours
And not no one else, baby So girl don't stop
What you're doing
Keep going
Cause you know that I And all alone
I didn't have a clue
You wanted me to be the one
To have and to hold for your own
So now I know
That it's for real
Because I feel I feel, I feel I feel
I feel, I feel I feel
I feel, I feel I feel
I feel your love
I feel, I feel I feel
I feel, I feel I feel
I feel, I feel I feel
I feel your love I feel the love
