

Heavens Highest Hill

Billy Falcon

How do I tell my baby, "Mama's not coming home?"
How do I tell myself I'll be staying alone?
Oh I, I can't stop crying She'll say, "Daddy, I wanna hold her wanna see her again
I wanna kiss her, wanna touch her" what can I say?
So do I Oh mama, I'm missing you real bad
But it don't do me no good sittin' thinking 'bout what we had Love don't stop, it goes on forever
Love don't stop and it never will
Love don't stop, one day we'll be together
Love don't stop and I'll sing this song to you someday
On heaven's highest hill How am I gonna look into those big brown eyes
When she wakes up crying out in the middle of the night
For the Mama? How will I make it better? The house is full of people but nobody's home
Everybody's here and I'm all alone calling out your name
But there's no answer Oh mama, last night she told me not to cry
I swear I see you every time she smiles Love don't stop, it goes on forever
Love don't stop and it never will
Love don't stop, one day we'll be together
Love don't stop and I'll sing this song to you someday
On heaven's highest hill I don't know if you hear me
Sometimes I'd like to think you do
All the things we been fightin' for
I'm gonna make them all come true And these arms, they ache to hold you
And I know one day I will
I'll meet you in the tall grass
Up on heaven's highest Love don't stop, it goes on forever
Love don't stop and it never will
Love don't stop, one day we'll be together
Love don't stop and I'll sing this song to you someday
On heaven's highest hill
(Love don't stop) Love don't stop, one day we'll be together
Love don't stop, on heaven's highest hill
Love don't stop, our love goes on forever
Love don't stop and it always will
Love don't stop
