

Slayers of Eden

Every Knee Shall Bow

Narrator:

He, who is, filled with arrogance and spite
Slithered up to her.
His tongue speaks
beautiful deadly filth
he is the prince of lies.
Whispers
in her ear,
meant only for deception corruption,
and confusion.
Her heart flutters as butterflies fly

Narrator:

This is a feeling she has never felt before
Thoughts race through her head as she reaches for
The forbidden

Chorus:

Why is this sweat stinging my eyes?
Why do I suddenly feel so different?
Who is this that fills my head with these forbidden words?
Will I not die?

Chorus:

I am afraid
Will I not be burned in the fire?
Is there no consequence
To this act of betrayal?

Deceiver:

You will not die.
It will make you like God.
He is afraid of you.
He doesn't want you to be so mighty

Deceiver: You can be God

Chorus: I want to be God

Deceiver: You can have His power

Narrator:

SHE BITES SHE BITES
HE BITES HE BITES

THEY BITE THEY BITE
WE BITTE WE BITE

Narrator:

“Where are you?
Where have you gone?
What is this you have done?”

Chorus:

I'm naked
And unclean
The serpent tricked me!

Narrator:

“Cursed
are you above the livestock
and all the wild animals
You will crawl on your belly eating dust
all the days of your life
Man will crush your head
and you will strike his heel.
And no longer may the cursed live forever.”

Chorus:

But the serpent tricked me!
The serpent tricked me!

Chorus:

Just like dogs,
We return to our vomit, our rancid sin
Malice, hate, lust, lies, greed
Homosexuality,
Adultery, fornication,
To betray the father and mother
And Father who loves us.
We ALL need the saving grace
Of the death on the cross

Chorus:

WE ARE THE SLAYERS OF EDEN
