My Story

Sean Mcgee

(Chorus)
Look me in my eyes and try to feel my pain
Do you know how it feels to be left out in the rain?
Each and everyday there's someone judging me Worried bout my life and how I live in these streets?Verse 1: Everyday I wake up got a hundred different hatas Trying to keep this paper stacks look like elevators (elevators) But no one really wants to hear my story (my story)That's why I'm all alone,there's no one here for me{Chorus}look me in my eye's and try to feel my pain
do you know how it feels to be left out in the rain each and everyday theres someone judgin me i worry bout y life and how i live in these streets{Chorus}
do you know how it feels to be left out in the rain
each and everyday theres someone judgin me i worry bout my life and how i live in these streetsVerse: 2
I got no place to go
I'm livin on a hope
And no one really knows What the hell is goin on How I feel inside, feelings I try to hide (whoa, ooh)Verse: 3
My daddy don't kno, my momma don't care
Don't matter if I'm here, it don't matter if I'm there So what am I suppose to do in this
