4th Street

Spoken

Downtown never looked so lonely as it does tonight
And like the wind that's blowing I long for home tonightTo tell the truth I've never felt so lonely as I do tonight but I'm alright
I just keep thinking about the words I want to say to you
Just to tell you how I feelIf I could write down what is written on my heart
I'd give anything to hold you in my armsTo tell the truth I've never felt so lonely as I do tonight but I'm alright
I just keep thinking about the words I want to say to you
Just to tell you how I feel4th street has never looked or felt so empty as it feels right now
Not a soul, not a sound has risen from the street tonight, tonight
To tell the truth I don't want to feel this lonely, this lonely ever again
This emptiness has to endTo tell the truth I've never felt so lonely as I do tonight but I'm alright
I just keep thinking about the words I want to say to you
Just to tell you how I feelDowntown never looked so lonely as it does tonightTo tell the truth I've never felt so lonely as I do tonight but I'm alright
I just keep thinking about the words I want to say to you
Just to tell you how I feelJust to tell you how I feel
Just to tell you how I feel
