

Windy Outside

Blaine L. Reininger

I am just a lonesome cowboy
Out here on the lone prairie
Just a boy from Colorado
I got my guitar on my knee Chinook wind blows down from the mountains
Breathes the perfumed breath of spring
See the mountains in the moonlight
Hear that lonesome cowboy sing Yippie-yay-kay-yay, git along, little dogies
It's your misfortune, and none of my own
Yippie-yay-kay-yay, on the streets of Laredo
It's your misfortune, and none of my own
Take the pickup into Pueblo
Hank Williams on the radio
Get a cold beer on the highway
I've got a long, long, long, long way to go I'm getting out of Colorado
Seek my fortune and my fame
Pick up the interstate in Cheyenne
I got my ticket, I got my name
And I sing
Yippie-yay-kay-yay, git along, little dogies
It's your misfortune, and none of my own
Yippie-yay-kay-yay, on the streets of Laredo
It's your misfortune, and none of my own
