

No Liars

Matthew Good

Caught under a spell
you know they'd call you on it every time we meet, yeah the secret's on again feel you move like you're meant to, closed caption eyes four walls, a door, making suicide yeah we're no liarswe're no liars Pinned under a spell the jaws of life to cut it stare at the windshield a while, let the fire spread try and come on the radio, all by design one city, two fronts, and bunker cyanide yeahwe're no liars we're no liars
Somewhere fine
it's somewhere you shouldn't mind Somewhere fine
it's somewhere you shouldn't mind
you shouldn't mind
you shouldn't mind
you know they'd call you on it
every time we meet, yeah the secret's on again Sit and read Jailbird, got nothing but time we're no liars
