

Fire In My Eyes

Fireflight

Feeling solid 'cause I have finally
Got my feet on the ground now
You rescued me with gravity
I was upside down, down I've got a fire in my eyes
I'm burning brighter than the sunlight
You orchestrated my escape, now I'm awake
I feel alive for the first time
You ignite the fire in my eyes Used to live my life locked up
Inside a room with no doors before
You found a window, You broke it
And now I won't be contained anymore I've got a fire in my eyes
I'm burning brighter than the sunlight
You orchestrated my escape, now I'm awake
I feel alive for the first time
You ignite the fire in my eyes Oh, I know You are
The reason I can breathe
Oh, I know You are
The reason I am free I've got a fire in my eyes
I'm burning brighter than the sunlight
You orchestrated my escape, now I'm awake
I feel alive for the first time
You ignite the fire in my eyes
