The New Order

Testament

"The New Order" by TESTAMENT Takers of humanity, elders paranoid
The time is now
Give up this world you once destroyed Society versus the underground Their battles fought and lost the time has come to rule the world at any cost
For the past it's too late
'Cause the world can't control fate
Shadows cast loud and clear
Tell the world the new order's here
Cities turn to battlefields a deadly spell is cast corpses falling one by one until the last
The preacher speaks of prophecy so many years before No one escapes their punishment the gods of war
For the past it's too late
'Cause the world can't control fate
Shadows cast loud and clear Tell the world the new order's hereDeath is like an empty space feel no thoughts of fear the future cries as mother nature sheds a tear
The world becomes a prisoner a victim of its crime
The human race is now a race against time
TELL THE WORLD THE NEW ORDER'S HERE!
