

Curious Soul Astray

k.d. lang

As a child my dreams ran wild
Through fields of disobey
Wandering, wandering
Wanting it all
A curious soul astrayAs a child my heart ran wild
Through fields of disobey
Loving and laughing
And longing to fall
A curious soul astrayI ran with a passionate story
I ran for the wisdom and glory
Away, away I ran
As a child my dreams ran wildThrough fields of disobey
Wandering, wandering
Wanting it all
A curious soul astrayI ran with a passionate story
I ran for the wisdom and glory
Away, away I ran
As a child my dreams ran wildThrough fields of disobey
Wandering, wandering
Wanting it all
A curious soul astrayAs a child my dreams ran wild
Through fields of disobey
Wandering, wandering, wanting it all
A curious soul astray
