Beauty and Delight

Blutengel

Let us change your life
You only have to close your eyes
You will see the beauty and delightIs it real or just a dream ?
Bleeding wounds, souls without life
Days are gone and no return
There is nothing to regretSleepless nights - a nightmare will win
Burning eyes and bloody lips
Skin so white, see the fact
Immortal life foreverNo more light and no more days
Our youth will never die
Night is the only place for us
The beauty lives forever...We're walking through a world of beauty and delight
We're searching for the one who is sharing our life
We're living in the night and we spread our wings to fly
We're suffering in the dark so that no one sees our tearsCome with us, we'll show you lust
Close your eyes and feel this life
Fear is gone and pleasure wins
There is nothing to regretTime is right to realize
We are creatures of the dark
We feel the same and live our dreams
Of beauty and delight
