

Storm (Forecass)

Jamie Foxx

Got nothing but my T-shirt and boxers on waiting for you to get home
It's been sunny outside all day baby I can't wait for it to storm
Wanna feel your raindrops falling down all the way
That thunder from down under surrounding me
Coming down hard pounding me Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come
Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come Lights out like a power outage
'Cause of the lighting in your bed spring showers
I can feel the mist every time we kissed
Just didn't know a downpour like this There's a flash flood warning
Till we wake up in the morning
There'll be puddles in the bed
The weatherman said, "Girl the rain is coming" Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come
Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come Girl the weatherman said
"It's cloudy skies, right there between your thighs"
I'm plucking for scattered showers for about an hour rain on me tonight
Now let me love you it's all I wanna do
Now let me kiss you, all over you
Now let me sex you, I just want you to Rain on me, yeah Girl let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come
Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come
Let me feel the raindrops falling down all over my love
I want it soakin' wet all over the bed I want the rain to come
