

Perfect Shade

Clinton Washington

Drowning in an ocean of insecurity
I overthink too much probably
I wish you couldn't take your eyes off me
And you'd see what I need you to see Hold my chest, tell me to breathe
Make me believe in a love deeply
Set my colors off and lemme be free Grab my face, whisper don't scream
Lean a little closer till you feel my heat
Touch my hand stop my heartbeat You bleed me blue, you bleed me blue
Make the blood drain from my body till I can't move. All I want you to do is use and abuse
I'm the perfect shade of you Lay it down and shock me. Have me .
You leave me gasping Hold my chest, tell me to breathe
Make me believe in a love deeply
Set my colors off and lemme be free Grab my face, whisper don't scream
Lean a little closer till you feel my heat
Touch my hand stop my heartbeat You get me blue, you get me blue
Make the blood drain from my body till I can't move. All I want you to do is use and abuse
I'm the perfect shade of you
