

Red Lights and Movie Stars

Percy Shaw

A silver moon is hanging in the sky,
with one lonely star to wish upon tonight.
We're in my car at a red light,
and you're right beside me, but you're so far away. I saw you with someone else,
while you were holding on to me.
(I saw you with someone else, while you were holding on to me.) The words you mumble seem so familiar,
it's like I've read them all somewhere before.
I gave up trying to read your roaming eyes,
they find everything but mine. I saw you with someone else,
while you were holding on to me.
(I need to improve with keeping things from you.) You made me think twice about telling you that I love you. I can't breathe when you're with me.
I can't sleep when we're apart.
I always ask myself what do you see in me.
At this party you could have any one of these movie stars. I saw you with someone else,
while you were holding on to me.
(Look at the time. We're not two of a kind) I saw you with someone else,
while you were holding on to me.
(I'll kiss you again, and close my eyes this time.)
