Barbed Wire

L.A. Guns

Standin' by the window
Watchin' all the rain
Wonderin' where the wind blows
It's comin' round again
Thinkin' all is said and done
You've heard it all before
Too much worryin' 'bout the future
Ain't it funny how it goes
To lie on barbed wire
To live on the summer wind
Too late, too late to compromise
It's only lies in the end
Runnin' in a circle
Tomorrow said we'd have a chance
Memories like a mirror
When you're living in the past
To lie on barbed wire
To live on the summer wind
Too late, too late to compromise
It's only
To lie on barbed wire
To live on the summer wind
Too late, too late to compromise
It's only lies comin' round again
Comin' round again
Comin' round again
