

You Don't Get No More

Patty Loveless

Well

I gave you my heart and what did you do?
You dragged it around and you broke it in two.

You don't get no more.

You don't get no more.

When you use up my heart

You don't get no more no more. Well

It's a "Honey, but this"

and "Honey but that"

When you run out of buts

That's the end of that

You don't get no more.

You don't get no more.

When you run out of buts

You don't get no more no more. Woah-oh

You only got one soul and that's a fact

You sell it to the devil and you don't get it back

You don't get no more.

You don't get no more.

When you sell your soul

You don't get no more no more. Either get off or get on down the line

Your callin' card is runnin' out of time

Hey hey Well

When your friends are all gone

And the money runs low

And your only true love is a high-dollar hoe

You don't get no more.

You don't get no more.

When your gold is gone

You don't get no more no more. No more. When I stop singing it's the end of the song

When you stop listnin' it's time to move on

You don't get no more.

You don't get no more. When you lost your friends

And you run out of rope,

When you sold your soul

And you're all out of hope,

When you break the only heart that I've got you don't Get no more.

No more.

Uh-uh.
