

Is It Over? (Feat. Shana Halligan)

Thievery Corporation

Far, far away
I remember a world
That's gone astray
Close your eyes, hold your breath
Dreams severed from each other now
Are tangled in a web
Time never passes
His dreams are closed
Fragments remind me
Of a memory that's now broke
Shared woes and fiction
I don't understand
Do we ever really
Hope of dreams that we had
Is it over?
Is it over?
Say good-bye, I say good-night
Like a cloud without
The ocean tatters
Drinking in the earth?
Stranded in the moon light
It's become a
Whole new future
Time never passing
His dreams are closed
Shared woes remind me
That a memory that's now broke
Shared woes and fiction
I can't understand
Are we ever really
In control of the dreams that we had
Is it over?
Is it over?
