Ahole Father

Sick Puppies

I waited for you yesterday
I waited and missed the last train
I waited to say that I'd fallen in love with your way
I waited for you yesterday
Eventually walked home in the rain I waited to see if you felt the same for meBut you don't,
and you won't
go against your asshole father Going broke,
quitting dope
for your folks
why did I even bother?
Why did I?I waited for minds to change Pointing their fingers of blame It's not my fault you're ashamed of how you feelBut you don't,
and you won't
go against your asshole father
Going broke,
quitting dope
for your folks
why did I even bother?
Why did I?Cause you don't just admit it Cause you won't
just admit it
just admit it
just admit it
just admit it
just admit it
I called you a whore and broke down your door but you don't even hate me!
And how could I heal when you won't even feel?
Why won't you hate me?!But you don't and you won't
go against your asshole father
Going broke,
quitting dope
for your folks
why did I even bother?
Why did I?

But you don't cause your nothing but broken down daddy's little daughter AREN'T YA?!!
Going broke,
quitting dope
for your folks
why did I even bother?
Why did I?
