The Roches

I guess I'm a little bit afraid of you
I'm not exactly sure what I should do
Does not seem to be a right or wrong
Sittin' by the kitchen table from dusk till dawnThis isn't easy for me
I'm so scared of love
Is there a reason to be?
I just can't get tough enoughBut I don't want to leave you
One moment is an emergency
I saw you really looking at me
Old memories making me shy
Sittin' by the kitchen table the late night skyAll day the next day
Standin' still I'm blowin' away
I get the feeling whatever I do
I'm gonna be in love with you
