Hard Times

35th & Taylor

There's a devil in my room
There's a preacher in my street
There's a cloud over my head, you've been keeping it for me
My heart was there for breaking, my blood was meant to bleed
It's been a hard times baby, since you've been loving me

Got no feeling in my hands, all the praying that's been done
If my dignity is dear, you're approaching with a gun
My feet were bound for freedom but your lips were sentenced done
It's been a hard times baby, you're the last place I should run

I can't help myself, I've got to get away
Everytime I'm leaving
Something pulls me close and forces me to stay
You're loving no compromise
You're loving no self free
You're loving choosing
And choosing what I don't need
I can't help myself, I've got to get away
Looked on these hard times

Hard times
You make my heart a heeven
Hard times
I just can't stop believing
Call this squeezing
How could I be so sure, you got me begging but I still want more
You'r elove is like an ocean, I'm sinking like a stone
You're a hard times baby, I just can't let go

I can't help myself, I've got to get away
Everytime I'm leaving
Something pulls me close and forces me to stay
You're loving no compromise
You're loving no self free
You're loving choosing
And choosing what I don't need
I can't help myself, I've got to get away
Looked on these hard times

Was your attention just to be my muse
Your're my lot of love, you're my fuels
Damn the consequences and the truth
I can never leave you
I could never leave you

I can't help myself, I've got to get away
Everytime I'm leaving
Something pulls me close and forces me to stay
I can't help myself, I've got to get away
Everytime I'm leaving
Something pulls me close and forces me to stay
You're loving no compromise
You're loving no self free
You're loving choosing
And choosing what I don't need
I can't help myself, I've got to get away
I can't help my
I can't help my
I can't help myself
