Night After Night

Primal Fear

Can't get rid of this taste of blood
Can't erase the face that hunts me
A call from the shadows below
A serenade of haunting voicesSomeone is digging my grave
Waiting for my body to arrive
My soul will burn alive
My blood is cold as iceNight after night
I hear them calling from the dark without light
Fight after fight
I keep on falling, deeper and deeper below
To the world that I don't wanna know
Life after lifeThe darkness will fall again
Chased by the dead and the lonely
I know that's my own devour
The evil inside growing strongerSomeone is digging my grave
Waiting for my body to arrive
But my soul will burn alive
My blood is cold as iceNight after night
I hear them calling from the dark without light
Fight after fight
I keep on falling, deeper and deeper below
To the world that I don't wanna know
Life after lifeWon't fall asleep, I will stay you light
It's not the right time - for your devastation
Your evil mind defying the curse
Won't let goNight after night
I hear them calling from the dark without light
Fight after fight
I keep on falling, deeper and deeper below
To the world that I don't wanna know
Life after life
