The Uninvited

Itzhak Perlman

What was sacred lost forevermore
What your hatred washed up to the shore
Underneath I still can feel the pain
What you took can never be replacedStone faced liar
Your hate vile(chorus)
For the blood you waste this will fall on you
Now your fate has been decided
For the life you take this is overdue
You are now the uninvitedSirens screaming blood against the wall
No more saving innocence at allNo shame spineless
Cold rage of violence(chorus)Soon you'll feel all my agony
Soon you'll know it
All you feel will come to life and it won't be long
For tonight you are gonna feel my pain
(chorus)
Stone faced liar
Stone faced liar
