Making Me New

Royal Tailor

I can't hide, no I can't keep quiet
It's like my hearts on fire and
I can't get over it, can't get control of it
It's not your typical love it's a miracle,
You stepped into my world
And You gotta hold me,
Now You won't let go of me
I've got a feeling that I can't explain
Like I'm crawling out of my skin
Dead till the moment that You said my name
Now my heart is beating again

You're making me new
Making me new,
Everything new
I've been changed by you
Like only love can do
You're making me new

No warning signs, no sirens or flashing lights
And just like a thief at night,
You so unexpectedly showed up and rescued me
I got a feeling that I can't explain
Like I'm crawling out of my skin
I was dead till the moment that you said my name
Now my heart is beating again

You gave it all for me, came and set me free
Now your love has overcome
