

Let Her Go (Jagwar's Yew Mix)

Jagwar Ma

I've become undone I want my lips stitched back together
Your eyes are the window to your sisters soul
But you won't let her I've become undone I want my lips stitched back together
Your eyes are the window to your sisters soul
But you won't let her Chorus
And I know you don't want to let her go
And I know you don't want to let her go
And I know you don't want to let her go
And I know you don't want to let her go So come on Break the chain with me I'm not one to pull the strings to let you in forever
'Cause your eyes are the window to your sisters soul
But you won't let her I've become undone I want my lips stitched back together
Your eyes are the window to your sisters soul
But you won't let her So come on
Break the chain with me Chorus x 3
