

Red Flower

Damon & Naomi

Dear friend, you've lost your center
And cannot find the rhyme
That makes you wholeWe can try to tell you
What you already know
But it's not for the telling
It's what you hold and let goIt's when the words come easy
They disappear
What's near is all you knowI can try to tell you
About the ebb and the flow
But it's not for the telling
It's what you hold and let go
