

Above and Beyond (The Call of Love)

Rodney Crowell

Well, I'll give you love that's above and beyond the call of love
And I'll never ever make you cry
Yes, I'll give you love that's above and beyond the call of love
And love's something that money can't buyWell, a poor boys chances for a pretty girls glances
Are sometimes very few
Though I got no money if you'll be my honey
Here's what I'll offer youYes, I'll give you love that's above and beyond the call of love
And I'll never ever make you cry
Yes, I'll give you love that's above and beyond the call of love
And love's something that money can't buyWe met by chance and I knew in a glance that I'd found my destiny
And now I want to carry you off and marry you if you will agree
