

Everlasting Arms

Mike Scott

Lord hold me
In Your everlasting arms
Enfold me
In Your everlasting armsLet striving cease
That I may come to rest
In perfect peace
Renewed and truly blessedLord bathe me
In Your everlasting light
Lord raise me
In Your everlasting lightAwake my mind
That I may understand
And come to find
The truth of who I amAbove the silvery bay
A bird rose on the breeze
Then swooped as if to say
You too may fly with easeLord lift me
In Your everlasting love
Home swiftly
In Your everlasting loveI'll go to where
A temple stands upon a hill
In silence there
I'll wait upon Your willLord lift me
In Your everlasting arms
In Your everlasting arms
Everlasting arms
Everlasting armsIn Your everlasting
Everlasting arms
