

You're a Fucking Dick Hope You Know That Shit

Massie

I talked to Ashley, don't try to lie
And the perfume on your shirt I recognize
How many were there?
You make me sick.

And then you turn it all to me to make a hit
Turn off the lights, waiting for you, you never showed
Tell me you're working late but I can't trust a word you say

You're a fucking dick hope you know that shit
You can never trust a man, had to learn that quick
How many others you been sleeping with?
All I know is I don't deserve this.

You're a fucking dick hope you know that shit
You can never trust a man, had to learn that quick
How many others you been sleeping with?
All I know is I don't deserve this.

But it's okay now you told your side
Said you'd never lie but your word's only mine
All the nights alone waitin' by my phone
You can talk your shit, but who have you been with?

You're the bitch I hope you know, I'm doing better on my own
Now I don't have to question why I fought the distance
You can say it's my fault, no baby this is my song

You're a fucking dick hope you know that shit
You can never trust a man, had to learn that quick
How many others you been sleeping with?
All I know is I don't deserve this.

You're a fucking dick hope you know that shit
You can never trust a man, had to learn that quick
How many others you been sleeping with?
All I know is I don't deserve this.

"Hey, um, i'm really sorry
I know I shouldn't have lied about anything,

And I was the one who fucked up, should've owned up to that
I miss you, please call me back."

You're a fucking dick hope you know that shit
You can never trust a man, had to learn that quick
How many others you been sleeping with?
All I know is I don't deserve this.

You're a fucking dick hope you know that shit
You can never trust a man, had to learn that quick
How many others you been sleeping with?
All I know is I don't deserve this.
