Officially Yours

Craig David

Oh, yeah, yeah
La da de, la da de, la da da da da do
Thinkin' how the story goes
I'm helpless and I'm wishin'
Put the film inside my mind
But there's a big scene that I'm missin'
As I reread my lines
I think said this, I should've said that
Did you edit me out of your mind?
'Cause in a flash you were disappear gone
Before the curtain falls
And we act this out again
Maybe I should risk it all and state
That I'm officially goin' on the record
To say, I'm in love with you
I'm officially everythin' you hoped that I would be
This time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong
I know for lettin' you go the way I did
Unconditionally more
Than I ever was before, I'm officially yours
La da de, la da de, la da da da da do
Travelin' down this road again
Got to make a few decisions
Don't want you to feel this hurt again
That's why I'm hopin' that you'll listen
If you let me press rewind
I'll rehearse every word, I should have said
'Cause girl I'm ready to make things right
Here on the stage so we can move on
And before the curtain falls
And we act this out again
Missin' pieces of ourselves so stay
I'm officially goin' on the record
To say I'm in love with you
I'm officially everythin' you hoped that I would be
This time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong
I know for lettin' you go the way I did

Unconditionally more
Than I ever was before
Things I should I have said
Like I appreciate the time that I spent with you
Inspire me with the smile like glow on your pretty face
My world comes alive
Now I know this time I'm not lettin' go
'Cause I'm officially yours
Officially everythin' you hoped that I would be
This time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong
I know for lettin' you go the way I did
Unconditionally more
Than I ever was before
I'm officially goin' on the record
To say I'm in love with you
I'm officially everythin' you hoped that I would be
This time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong
I know for lettin' you go the way I did
Unconditionally more
Than I ever was before
Girl, I'm unconditionally yours
Officially yours, your man
Girl, I'm unconditionally yours
Officially yours, I am
Girl, I'm unconditionally yours
Officially yours, your man
Girl, I'm unconditionally yours
Officially yours, I am
