

Ball Point Man

2 Skinnee J's

Up, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the day
I've got sass and savvy
Pack flash by the paragraphI'm more novel than War and Peace
I fight beasts
Up to the teeth on the daily
My pen is my sword and thank Lord, never fails meI remember back in the days of my youth
When I used to run around
On the block with a few friends
Knickers and kickersAnd stickers on our big wheels
Mind tricks and Kung Fu grips
Was the big dealAt nighttime we'd fight crime
Defending civilians
Mounting extra sensory offenses
Against the villainsBy the millions
'Cause we instilled fear
Jimmy quit, Joey got married
But I'm still hereUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayI've got my head in the clouds but I'm grounded
The superhero's stuck to the pavement and I'm pounded
Astounded by the sound of unfounded speculation
By authorities around to confound the populationNow look whose well, I propose top break the shell
The coffee shop carves lights into the spill
These visions of cathedrals from a shopping mall
And philosophy from a bathroom wallSo what can I expect without hesitation
To my devastation
My notebook is my battlefield I run tons of slums
And I can leap a metaphor in a single boundUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayI'm bidding my time
I'm bidding my time
I'm bidding my time
I'm bidding my timeI'm bidding my time
Waiting for a sign

To be sent to me
To unleash the power of my secret identityBut until that day
I will stay for the time being
Incognito laying low with my rhyme scheme
But ShazamI marvel like the captain
And my inopportunist impotence
In the face of distraction
In action makes me a good guyLike Mathis, so I battle Black Mantis
In the bathtub , like Aqua man
Minions of evil heed this tirade
It's a parade of polemics and I love a paradeSo I ride into the sunset
With the money and the girl
But in my spare time
I still save the worldUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the dayUp, up, and away
Ball point man's come to save the day
