Lonely People

Kreg Viesselman

I swear I never watched you sleeping
Well honey, I'm an honest man
I guess it always gets me drinking
She makes me sad
Sweet, sweet and cold
Clean up the mess and sleep the day away
When you call
I might be here, I might be gone
But here at the sound of the bells you cry
You've lost your mind
But dear, don't be sad
It's just a dream you dreamt you had
But I ain't seen you look so good
So honey
I guess it always gets me drinking
Well Holly, she makes me sad
Forgive me if I look so lonely
It's not that bad
Hey, well I know
California might be warm this time of year
We should go, turn the engine and the radio
But it's cold, always cold
This hotel room won't let me sleep alone
It's alright, I guess we'll just stay up all night

I ain't seen you look so good
So honey
I guess it always gets me drinking
Well Holly, she makes me sad
Forgive me if I look so lonely
It's not that bad
Sometimes it's just the sound of TV
That gets me always wondering why
Sometimes it's just a conversation
That makes me cry, it makes me cry
So honey
I guess it always gets me drinking
Well Holly, she makes me sad
Forgive me if I look so lonely

It's not that bad
Sometimes it's just the sound of the TV
That gets me always wondering why
Sometimes it's just a conversation
That makes me cry, it makes me cry
For the lonely people
Lonely people
