

Sometimes (Alex Sayz Remix Edit)

Donkeyboy

Nationwide

Hey there people here I come

Step the side, Donkeyboys ain't what you want But sometimes, I need somebody who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights

I'm breaking up, I need someone who needs somebody now People change, change because of who I am
If you don't, than you and I won't get along But sometimes, I need somebody who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights

I'm breaking up, I need someone who needs somebody now I need somebody who can make me feel alright, And shades me from the streetlights.

I'm breaking up, I need someone who needs somebody now All these thoughts come too my head But sometimes, I need somebody who can make me feel

Alright,

And shades me from the streetlights

I'm breaking up, I need someone who needs somebody now I need somebody who can make me feel alright,
And shades me from the streetlights

I'm breaking up, I need someone who needs somebody now Make me feel alright.
