

Hate That I Don't Hate You

The Griswolds

Maybe it ain't so bad just to run and hide
Maybe this is wrong, and I can't make it right Baby I can't make up for the things you lack Maybe then you wouldn't feel so terrifiedMaggie says she's using again, and I think she's using my friends
Been substance abusing againMaggie says she's using again,
and I think she's using my friends
Been substance abusing again and againI hate that I don't hate you,
For all the callous things we've done
But I love that I will love you,
No matter all the things we've done.I hate that I don't hate you,
For all the callous things we've done
But I love that I will love you,
No matter all the things we've done.Maybe we could go back to the simple life
Back to when my love would keep you satisfied
Maybe it ain't so bad just to fantasize
About the nights you only craved me by your sideMaggie says she's using again,
and I think she's using my friends
Been substance abusing again and againI hate that I don't hate you,
For all the callous things we've done
But I love that I will love you,
No matter all the things we've done.I hate that I don't hate you,
For all the callous things we've done
But I love that I will love you,
No matter all the things we've done.We're addicted
The first step is admitting, and baby there's no fix that Could fix what we've committed
But I swear that I'd be different
Be everything we needed
Cuz I'm man enough to be that, and I feel that we can beat itMaggie says she's using again, and I think she's using my friend
Been substance abusing again.Maggie says she's using again,
and I think she's using my friends
Been substance abusing again and again.I hate that I don't hate you,
For all the callous things we've done
But I love that I will love you,
No matter all the things we've done.I hate that I don't hate you,
For all the callous things we've done
But I love that I will love you,

No matter all the things we've done.
