

Learn To Fly

Carbon Leaf

Hello, goodbye
Higher you fly
Into the world
I awoke this mornin'
With pourin' rain in my heart
As I fall apart today but you make your way
And I'll rise, I will rise if in my mind
But I can see you fly away
I can see the sun upon your face
I can feel your heart and I can hear you cry
And as I fall apart, I learn to fly
A dirty bird like me will learn to fly
Hello, goodbye
Two birds hover
Inside of a heart factory
Holding on to recovery, fly away
Or repaired and preparing to go on your way
And I know I'm on my own but you make your way
And I'll rise, I will rise if in my mind
But I can see you fly away
I can see the sun upon your face
I can feel your heart and I can hear you cry
And as I fall apart, I learn to fly
A dirty bird like me will learn to fly
Fly
And everything that I love you for remains
High above the clouds and the cleansing rains
You make your way and I will rise if in my mind
You make your way, you make your way
But I can see you fly away
I can see the sun upon your face
I can feel your heart and I can hear you cry
A dirty bird like me will learn to fly
